Our fees are usually deducted on the fifth working day of the month, or the next working day after the fifth.

Premier

Customers who qualify as an HSBC Premier customer in any other part of the HSBC Group are automatically eligible for our HSBC Premier service. Therefore such customers already fulfil the minimum requirements for Premier service and do not have to maintain the Relationship Balance or the Annual Sole Salary threshold with HSBC Expat. The HSBC Expat Underfunding Fee will not apply to such customers as long as the customer maintains their HSBC Premier status.

Please advise us if you qualify as a Premier customer in any other part of the HSBC Group. We may from time to time ask you to evidence that you continue to fulfil the criteria for Premier customer status (including minimum relationship balances or annual sole salary).
